Randy Lindros Scholarship

Randy Lindros was a fine young defenseman who last played for the Kamloops Jardine Blazers (Bantam AAA). Randy passed away suddenly in December of 1995. In his memory, a scholarship of $500 has been created. The scholarship will be awarded annually to a student (male or female) who best meets the following criteria:

1. Graduates from grade 12 in a Kamloops area high school with above average marks in all subjects.
2. Has played hockey for a minimum of 2 years to at least the bantam level and has shown good sportsmanship, leadership and character.
3. Plans to attend a recognized BC post-secondary institution (may be delayed one year if the successful candidate decides to postpone going on to college, but after one year is forfeited).
4. Has shown excellence and commitment to hockey and any other area of endeavor, whether athletic, fine arts or community service.

Deadline: MAY 1st

To apply please include the following:

- A transcript of the student's marks or most recent report card
- A letter of reference (from a coach, referee in chief, teacher or someone from the community)
- Personal letter detailing hockey and community participation plus post-secondary plans

The above information should be forwarded in one complete package to:
